

ELIZABETH A. LAMPKIN

Event Director

Elizabeth Ann Lampkin was born in North Carolina where she lived several years before moving to California in 1974. Where in 1990, changed careers and began working for the federal government as a clerk for the Small Business Administration. In 1995, she was promoted to Administrative Officer for the Small Business Administration Fresno Service Center. During her tenure at the Service Center, Elizabeth received numerous awards for her involvement in government work. She was recognized by Vice President, Al Gore, for her participation in the Welfare to Work Initiative and was recognized for her participation and achievement in hiring individuals with physical and mental challenges.

In 2002, after 12 years of government service, Elizabeth left the Small Business Administration for the US Forest Service where she worked as a Supervisory Personnel Management Specialist. In 2005, she left the U.S. Forest Service for the Bureau of Reclamation to work as the Administrative Officer.

Elizabeth's experience with government administration, coordination, and her love for the outdoors and people with special challenges brought her in contact with the C.A.S.T. for Kids program. Shortly after joining the Bureau, Elizabeth volunteered her time at her first C.A.S.T. event. In 2006 and again in 2007, Elizabeth partnered with Valerie Curley to help host the Millerton event. As a result of her dedicated and outstanding efforts with the C.A.S.T. for Kids program, Elizabeth was asked to participate as an Event Director for the National C.A.S.T. team, which she accepted.

Elizabeth currently works as the Recruitment Staffing Chief for the Internal Revenue Service in 2007 and continues to live in California with her 2 children. When not working or volunteering with C.A.S.T. for Kids, Elizabeth spends most of her free time with her kids.
